

Elevating Voices ~ Expanding Participation

CLASSROOM LAW PROJECT'S 2019 OREGON CIVICS CONFERENCE

WORKSHOP SCHEDULE

Time	Capitol Galleria	Hearing Rm A	Hearing Rm B	Hearing Rm C	Hearing Rm F	Rm 350
8:30	Check in / Registration
9:00 - 9:40	Senate Chambers Welcome Plenary Session Keynote: Sen. Lew Frederick Awarding Civic Educator of the Year
9:40-9:50	Passing Time
Session 1 9:50 - 11:00		Civics in Oregon: a Conversation with Mary Beth Herkert, of the Secretary of State's Office	Civil Rights & Civil Wrongs: Teaching Portland's Black History with Primary sources - Sarah Anderson	From Oregon to Nazi Germany and Back: Connecting Disconnected Histories - Amanda Solomon	Disability Justice & Inclusion: an Expert Panel with Belinda Marier & Eric Wells	Archives in the Classroom: the Magic of Primary Source Materials - Mary Hansen & Brian Johnson of the City of Portland Archives
11:00 - 11:10	Passing Time
Session 2 11:10 - 12:20		A Conversation with Oregon Legislators: upcoming issues in the House of Representatives with Rep. Paul Evans	Teaching the New Native American Curriculum: What are Indian nations and Indian Peoples, and why does Oregon law require us to teach them? - Robert Miller	Oregon Youth & the Justice System - Sean Lo & Vika Safarian	Immigration, Oregon Schools, and the Students who Face Both with a Student Panel from David Douglas High School	GeoCivics: Giant Maps & Civic Voices with Ken Carano & Western Oregon University
12:20 - 1:20	Networking Lunch (Department of Ed Basement)
Session 3 1:30 - 2:40		A Conversation with Chief Justice Walters: Recent Cases Before the Oregon Supreme Court	Stepping into the World: Middle Schoolers and Current Issues - Megan O'Dell-Ream	Gender Issues and Student Voice with a Student Panel from Madison High School	State Executive Power in Oregon - Dustin Buehler, Deputy General Counsel, Office of the Governor	Next Up Student Panel: Uplifting Student Voices in your School
2:40 - 2:50	Passing Time
Session 4 2:50 - 4:00		Oregon's Social Science Standards: Creating New Narratives - Amit Kobrowski, OR Dept. of Education	Free Speech, and Oregon's New Bias Crime Law - Randy Blazak, Chair of the Coalition Against Hate Crime	Oregon Women's History Consortium: Resources for Teaching the 19th Amendment and Oregon's Votes for Women - Kimberly Jensen & Janice Dilg	Welcoming Equity, Access, and Inclusion into our Schools with Michael Hulshof-Schmidt	Critical Consumers of the News: a Not so New Challenge for Students with Cambria Floren

